Impact Precision Shooting Named an Affiliate Sponsor of the 2023 Precision Rifle Series Season

West Bend, WI – Precision Rifle Series (PRS) LLC., the preeminent precision rifle organization in the world, dedicated to the promotion and growth of the sport of competitive precision rifle shooting, is proud to announce Impact Precision Shooting as an Affiliate Sponsor of the 2023 Precision Rifle Series Season.

We are honored to partner with Impact Precision Shooting during the 2022 season and we are grateful for their commitment to promoting growth and innovation in the sport of precision rifle shooting,” said Ken Wheeler, Director of the PRS. “Impact has consistently been among the top-performing actions trusted by PRS competitors in recent years. Specifically, the 737R has become the most popular action among PRS shooters.”

Owners Tate Streater, Wade Stuteville, and the entire Impact team have been trailblazers in the precision rifle community, providing exceptional actions to PRS shooters. During the last few years, Impact has led the way as the most popular action among the top 100 shooters in the Precision Rifle Series. As top PRS competitors themselves, the Impact team is distinctly aware of the equipment needs of the shooters. Using nothing but the latest CNC technology they can hold extremely tight tolerances and provide finishes that are second to none. Impact Precision actions are chosen by PRS Champions due to their unmatched accuracy and durability.

PRS Pro Shooter, Austin Orgain, won the coveted PRS Golden Bullet two years in a row and was named the PRS Open Division Champion during the 2020 and 2021 seasons while shooting an Impact action. Again in 2022, our PRS Pro Series First Place Open Division Champion, Austin Buschman, took home the prestigious Golden Bullet while shooting an Impact Action. Impact actions are relied upon by the most elite shooters in the PRS including our 2022 Season 3rd place Open Division Champion Matt Caruso, our 7th place Open Division Champion Ken Sanoski, and our 8th place Open Division Champion Austin Orgain.

The Impact 737R, with its rugged bolt stop design that can take abuse while not requiring modification of your stock or chassis, has been the most popular action among PRS competitors for several years now. The last six PRS Golden Bullet winners have won the series while shooting an Impact Action. The winning design allows for barrels to be purchased off the shelf and user-installed so that our shooters can hit the firing line without the hassle of a re-barrel job.

This year Impact Precision Shooting, alongside their partners at Stuteville Precision, will be placing several custom rifles on PRS Pro Series Prize tables. Impact will also be a primary sponsor of the PRS AG Series, home to the ten most elite PRS matches in the country. The PRS also looks forward to working with Impact Precision Shooting to successfully leverage the partnership to directly support membership, elevate national pro series competitions, and grow the sport. The PRS will host 40+ of the most renowned national-level precision rifle competitions in the nation, with the 2023 PRS Finale taking place November 3-5th in Medicine Lodge, Kansas at the Twin Peaks Rifle Club, where Impact Precision Shooting will be sponsoring the event.
